NAMED INAUGURAL WORDS; WILL HARDING REPEAT?

Hayes Last President to Give World Utterance That Lives; Lincoln Hit the Bullseye Twice.

BY EYEWITNESS.
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Will President Harding utter any phrase tomorrow noon that will be accurately on everybody's lips day after tomorrow. Only five of his twenty-seven predecessors have done it, and one of the five did it twice. The inaugural day phrases of all five took such a hold on the mind and ear of the world that they got themselves embedded in the authoritative books of quotation. Those six phrases are the only specimens of inaugural utterance that have passed into the common coinage of the English language as spoken on this continent.

It took 129 years and thirty-eight inaugural addresses to accumulate them.

JEFFERSON FIRST.

The first man to fashion an inaugural phrase that lived was Thomas Jefferson. In his first inaugural he defined a policy in nine words which probably have been frequently on men's lips in the last twenty months that they were in all the previous years since they were spoken, for he said: "Honesty to the people, and to the people."

The last President to turn an inaugural phrase that still lives and travels did it forty-four years ago, and he did it in a sixty-five word sentence of which all but ten words have been stripped away, leaving them both as a rallying cry and the definition of a principle.

"He serves his party, best who serves the country best."

Nearly a century and a quarter since the first and more than two score years since the last. Evidently it is not so easy.

FIRST IN WASHINGTON.

Jefferson's first inaugural was the first to be delivered in the capital city of Washington. The other three had been spoken in New York or in Philadelphia. But President Washington had laid the cornerstone of the present central building of the Capitol eight years before Jefferson was inaugurated, and so the first Democratic President had a claim to it. It is his horse to when he rode to Capitol Hill for a ceremony to which tomorrow will revert for the precedent of austerity.

Jefferson was the only President to combine the word "friends" with the words "fellow-citizens." In addressing the assembly, almost all the others have been content with "fellow-citizens" or "fellow-countrymen."

Thirty-six years passed after Jefferson's first inaugural before a President got an inaugural phrase permanently entwined with his name, and then the phrase did not amount to much except for its pomp. That President was the courtly Martin Van Buren, who, toward the close of his inaugural, spoke of Gen. Jackson as "my illustrious predecessor."

The books of questions credit him with the phrase, though it really dates way back to a book Honesty, friendships with all nations, entangling alliances with none. March 4, 1801.—Thomas Jefferson.

My illustrious predecessor. March 4, 1837.—Martin Van Buren.

The mystic chords of memory stretching from every battlefield and patriot grave to every living heart and hearthstone all over this broad land will yet swell the chorus of the union when again touched, as surely they will be, by the better angels of our nature. March 4, 1861.—Abraham Lincoln.

With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in. March 4, 1865.—Abraham Lincoln.

I know no method to secure the repeal of bad or obnoxious laws so effective as their stringent execution. March 4, 1869.—U. S. Grant.

He serves his party best who serves the country best. March 5, 1877.—Rutherford B. Hayes.

by Fielding, the novelist. In any case, Van Buren, probably the most perfect type of the grand seigneur we ever had in the White House, liked the idea so well that he used it twice, and in stating it he said: "I tread in the footsteps of illustrious men."

COMES LINCOLN.

Then twenty-four years passed before another President struck the bull's eye clean and true in an inaugural. That was Lincoln, who did it equisitely in those last six lovely lines of his first inaugural. It is the passage which sings itself and begins with "The mystic chords of memory," and then makes the music of his first inaugural words more. Four years later the emancipator did it again. In his second inaugural, which is less than one-fifth as long as his first, and which closes with the seventy-four word prayer, nearly all of which is Anglo-Saxon roots of one syllable.

Today it is a rhetorical figure to say that almost every American school child knows those words by heart.

Grant got a phrase that lived into the first page of his first inaugural.

MRS. HARDING GREETED FRIENDS.

Fresh and Unruffled, Looks Well and Happy.

Will Never be Inaccessible, She Declares.

President-Elect and Wife Are Guests at Dinner.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Within a few minutes of her arrival, nearly half an hour ahead of her schedule, Mrs. Harding, wife of the President-elect, fresh and unruffled, was arranging the flowers in her apartment at the Willard, pausing at intervals to greet visitors and assure them that she was "very glad to meet them."

Mrs. Harding looked well and happy, and in much better health than on her brief visit to Washington last June. She was direct, self-possessed and quietly cordial in manner as ever, and brushed aside any intimation that after tomorrow she might be less accessible.

Mrs. Harding and I will never be inaccessible to our friends. We shall always be glad to see our friends and want everyone to be our friends and to like them as we like them.

LOOKS ALMOST GIRLISH.

Slender and graceful, Mrs. Harding looked almost girlish in spite of her gray hair, which was styled in a simple, becoming manner. Her straight, little traveling frock of dark blue was cut in an open square at the throat and relieved with a collar of embroidered white chiffon.

Later in the day after their visit of condolence to Mrs. Champ Clark, Mrs. Harding received with her husband at their hotel, and arrived called with him on the President and Mrs. Wilson. For these occasions, Mrs. Harding wore a black afternoon dress and large black hat, trimmed with Harding blue.

GUESTS AT DINNER.

Tonight the President-elect and Mrs. Harding were the guests at a dinner given at the Willard by Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Thompson of Cleveland, O. Mr. Thompson was formerly secretary to President Taft, and before that served as Assistant Secretary of the Interior under President Taft. He has long been a close personal friend of President-elect Harding.

All the forty-seven guests, with the exception of Mr. and Mrs. Will Hays of Indiana, were Ohioans, among them being Michael Gallagher of Cleveland and W. H. Miller of Columbus, who were closely associated with Mr. Thompson in the Harding primary and election campaigns.

The Cleveland guests besides Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, were: Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Hanna, Mr. Corlies E. Sullivan, Mrs. Rollin H. White, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Burke, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Washburn, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Grasselli and Donald S. Andrews.

OTHER GUESTS.

Among other guests were: Gov. and Mrs. Harry L. Davis, Senator and Mrs. Frank B. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Daugherty, Mr. Harry Daugherty of Columbus, the next Attorney-General, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Christian of Marion, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Sawyer of Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ellis, Edward S. Moore, Paul Moore, Mr. Jess Smith and Mr. and Mrs. George Martin.

The Vice-President-elect and Mrs. Coolidge met the Harding party at the hotel. Mrs. Coolidge spent the afternoon motoring with Mrs. W. F. Stearns and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge dined quietly at their hotel with Mr. and Mrs. Stearns and Mr. Henry Long of Boston. Later they went to the station to meet their sons, John and Calvin, Jr., who arrived shortly before 8 o'clock, with their grandfather, Mr. John Coolidge from Northampton.

The Secretary of State-designate and Mrs. Hughes were joined at the Shoreham today by their son and daughter-in-law, Charles Evans Hughes, Jr., and Mrs. Hughes. Mr. Andrew W. Mellon, the new Secretary of the Treasury, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Adelle Mellon, his brother, Richard, and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mellon, arrived today. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Denby, who arrived yesterday, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Denby, and their daughter, Miss Liberty M. Thompson. Senator and Mrs. Fall have with them at the Raleigh their daughter, Mrs. Brent Elliott, and Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Hays, and Miss Martha Hays are at the Shoreham. Mrs. Herbert Hoover arrived this morning and went to her new home in S Street, where Mr. Hoover joined her later in the day. Harry Daugherty and John J. Davis have arrived and Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. MAIL WAGON IS HELD UP.

Alexander, the other two transferred the mail sacks.

According to the story told the officers, the bandits then told Grimes and Alexander to climb inside the truck. They then drove back to the postoffice, still handcuffed together, and reported the robbery.

Deputy Sheriff Constable J. H. Bell, Detective Sergs. Mart and Mailheu were detailed to the case and went to the postoffice to investigate. A large squad of armed men to comb the river bed.

Soon after the officers arrived at the postoffice a former mail clerk whose actions aroused suspicions was taken into the room and questioned.

After more than an hour of checking on the stories of the mail employees, the officers returned to the postoffice. The chief clerk, Assistant Superintendent of Post-office Aldridge explained that the registered mail was bound for the eastbound overland Santa Fe train, due to leave here at 2:30 p.m. Alexander, the clerk, is signed up to be responsible for the mail until it is taken over by some other clerk, and was to accompany the shipment on the train. Alexander lives at 1115 South Broadway and Grimes at 725 Maple avenue.

THEIR DESCRIPTIONS.

The descriptions given for the three men in the robbery follow: No. 1, American, aged 25, height 5 ft. 10 in., weight 150 pounds. He wore a brown suit and a light cap. No. 2, American, aged about 25 years, height 5 ft. 9 in., weight 150 pounds. He wore a dark felt hat and a full-length overcoat of light color. No. 3, could not be described by the postal employees, but the description given by Frank Davis, the crossing-gate operator, was as follows: American, aged about 35 years, weight about 135 pounds, medium height. He was well dressed, wore no overcoat. He had a dark felt hat. This feature corresponds with the partial description provided by Grimes.

TOWERMAN'S STORY.

The clever ruse which the robbers worked in getting an opportunity to board the mail truck last night was as follows:

"Hello, Davis," whispered one of the hold-up men as he lifted the "Chickadee" from the crossing-gate at the corner of First and Alameda streets, about 5 p.m., and greeted the gate operator.

"Who are you?" inquired Frank Davis, the operator, who resides at 155 West Third street.

"I'm a revenue officer," whispered the hold-up man in an undertone, as he shifted his six-shooter from one pocket to another, remarking that he wanted it where he could reach it handily.

"Pretty soon," he began, "there will be a truck coming wandering down from the west, and it is full of bootleg whisky. It looks a good deal like these government mail trucks, so you'll know it when you see it. We're going to get that truck. Up the street a half block is one of my deputies with a flashlight in his hand. Just across First street, by the other gate, is another deputy. When the truck comes in sight the deputy up yonder will flash to my deputy across the street, and when he flashes his light toward your window, pump the gates down quick so the truck can't escape."

Suddenly there came a quick flash from across the street, and Frank Davis almost burst his heart pumping down the gates, thinking he was going to play a silent part in the capture of a band of bootleggers. Almost as suddenly his unexpected caller slid down the tower stairs and ran across the street.

Just then a Southern Pacific train rumbled past, rolling toward San Francisco. As the observation car disappeared Frank Davis lifted the gates and the truck drove on eastward at a rapid gait. Davis supposed that the bootleggers were tightly in the clutches of the law, but instead of that a government mail truck has been robbed of its load of registered mail.

Late last night, as he sat in darkness in his little gate tower, Frank Davis expressed surprise upon learning that he had unintentionally assisted in a bold robbery. "How in thunder did that fellow know my name?" he inquired in astonishment. "First thing he did after coming up the stairs was to call me by name and tell me he was an officer. It all happened so quick I didn't have time to ask for his credentials."

Davis is an elderly man and has been on the Alameda and First street gates about a year.

ROB POSTOFFICE.

Hold-up Men Make Branch Manager Hand Over All His Money.

Four armed men held up the manager of Postoffice Branch Station No. 4, 2228 Stephenson avenue, as he was closing the place, early last night, and robbed him of $25, according to a report made by Assistant Post-office Superintendent Aldridge to the police. Mr. Aldridge stated that the manager, whose name could not be learned at a late hour, had failed to report the robbery to the police. The men entered the place as the manager, who was alone in the substitution, was preparing to leave, and commanded him to hand over all his money.

DEFEAT OF NAVY BILL SEEN IN ELEVENTH-HOUR RUSH AS CONGRESS HURRIES TO EXIT.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Congress tonight neared its end in the usual desperate attempts to pass eleventh-hour measures. Night sessions were held and many bills received their death blow, while numerous others escaped. The $395,000,000 navy bill appeared to be the only regular supply bill which would fly. Its loss was conceded tonight.

Steps which it was believed would be successful were taken to enact the $400,000,000 sundry civil bill. Arrangements had been made for another vote in the House.

The Fordney emergency tariff bill was returned to the House with the President's veto. The House agreed to take it up tonight, with little expectation that the necessary two-thirds vote to override the veto would be forthcoming.

Important bills remaining in President Wilson's hands were the immigration restriction bill and the army appropriation bill, completed today by Congress.

Despite the rush of business the House passed for an hour tonight in tribute to former Speaker Champ Clark.

The crux of battle in the Senate was the navy bill. Senator Poindexter, Republican, of Washington, in charge of the measure, admitted its defeat. Some leaders declared it was being used to head off consideration of the soldiers' bonus and other bills against which powerful opposition has been entered.

It appeared probable that the bill for government regulation of cold storage would be among those saved from defeat. A new compromise in conference was reached and adopted promptly by the Senate with similar action expected in the House. Squeezed through the jam over the naval bill also was a new measure appropriating $18,000,000 for hospital extensions for war veterans.

DISCOVERS CAUSE OF FALLING HAIR

Chicago Specialist Says Greatest Percentage of Baldness Due to Alopecia Pityriodes.

Prof. John H. Austin, over 40 years a bacteriologist, hair and scalp specialist, who now has offices at Hamburger's, says this scalp disorder is often mistaken for common "dandruff."

Alopecia pityriodes starts with a scaling of the scalp, sometimes slight, commonly called "dandruff," sometimes abundant—producing thick, grayish-white, dry or greasy scales—which leads to falling of the hair. This stage lasts from two to seven years as a rule. At first, when the hair starts to fall, it is hardly noticeable, but as this ailment, "Alopecia Pityriodes," becomes more deeply seated, and as the microscopic microbes can determine the exact trouble with which the hair and scalp are afflicted, and has proved that the use of mange cures, dandruff cures, hair tonics, vasoline and similar hair-taking medicine without knowing what you are trying to cure.

FREE MICROSCOPIC EXAMINATION of the hair and scalp—both men and women invited. Private Office, Second Floor Hamburger's. Hours, 10 to 12, and 2 to 4.—(Advertisement.)

A seven per cent investment with no element of speculation

The Preferred Stock of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation is an extraordinarily attractive investment for either limited or large capital. The stock has a par value of $100.00 per share. It can be bought at $85.00 per share. It pays 6 per cent on par, which is better than 7 per cent on the amount invested.

The payment of dividends quarterly as due is rendered a surety by the requirements of the permit under which the stock is sold and by the very large surplus for payment of dividends which the Corporation is earning.

There is no speculative element in the investment, for the Preferred Stock has priority over Common Stock not only as to dividends but as to assets as well.

The investment of additional capital will also increase the plant assets of the Corporation, for the proceeds of the sale of Preferred

Stock must be used for betterments and extensions. This in turn will create increased earnings so that your own investment adds to its own security by increasing plant value and operation earnings.

The present management of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation has been in control of the Corporation's affairs for 32 years, so that the conservative, judicious administration of its affairs is fully assured.

Many patrons of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation have invested nominally in the Preferred stock, regulating their investments so that the income therefrom will pay their gas and electric bills. The stock has the advantage of being readily convertible into cash.

It is a very attractive security in which to invest monthly savings, for it can be bought on an easy-payment plan.

Bullock's Fifteenth Year of Service will Commence

Today -- Friday -- March 4th

This announcement is an invitation to come to Bullock's Today — and enjoy the many beautiful things that have been arranged to greet you — and this Happy New Year so full of opportunity. If you could be behind the scenes you wouldn't stay away. The store will be beautiful.

—Isn't it Spring Time? Isn't it Southern California, the land of Blossoms? And, with precedent so strong, one might ask, "Isn't it Inauguration Month?" Yes—and it is going to be an Inauguration Month more brilliant than any. The New Merchandise is going to make it so—the New Values are going to make it so—Vigor, Enthusiasm, Determination, Sincerity are linked together to make it so!

—Inauguration Month will rededicate Bullock's to Service. It will do so in the Friendship way—the Bullock Way—the way of Satisfaction for every Customer—the way of winning Confidence by meriting it.

—Today — Friday — the first Day of Inauguration Month and Bullock's Fifteenth Year of Service—with an invitation and a Promise from every Section of the Store!

In Bullock's Boys' and Girls' Store

This Inauguration Month of 1921 is filled with more than ordinary import—for it witnesses the crystallization of a Year of Friendship—making—and the beginning of a Year of still more earnest Endeavor to firmly establish Bullock's Boys' and Girls' Store as a Friend Worthwhile in the Hearts of the Boys and Girls and Parents of Southern California.

—Quality, Value and Service have been increased to the fullest possible extent—in a bid for Friendship!

"$5.00!—
That's all it Cost,
this Dress of Mine!"
—"The last time Bullock's Girls' Store had a $5.00 Sale of White Wash Dresses—Mother bought it and she's been 'thanking her lucky stars' ever since! Today—Bullock's Girls' Store is offering 100 more Dresses at $5.00 each—and there are some of them exactly like mine!"

—The speaker seemed to think that her Dress was the most beautiful of all—but that's natural because every dress is so delightfully pretty that all the girls think that!

—Bullock's Girls' Store is offering 100 more of those charming Dresses Today—at a most opportune time—with Easter about three weeks away—for every one of the 100 will serve most joyously as an Easter Frocks for some little Girl of 6 to 14 years!

The Dresses Themselves!

—They're of fine lawn and batiste—simply, yet effectively trimmed with lace and embroidery in many models, with each one seemingly vying with the next for charm.

—And the price, $5.00! Little need be said of that for Mothers who know the ordinary marking on such dresses will marvel indeed at this low one of $5.00! Only 100 Dresses in all—remember—on Bullock's Fourth Floor—Today.

Seco Silk Bloomers, $1.75

For Girls of 6 to 16 Years

—Five dozen delightful Bloomers of Pink Seco Silk—strongly made into sizes for Girls of 6 to 16 years—offered at an attractively low marking —Today—in that new Section of Furnishings for Girls—on Bullock's Fifth Floor. These have elastic tops and knee bands—are lace trimmed with scalloped ruffles.

—Twelve Dozen Muslin Gowns are priced at $1.65; these are in sizes for Girls of 2 to 16 years—are lace and embroidery trimmed—and are, also, unusual values at this new, low marking. Bullock's Fifth Floor—Today.

Girls' Tie-On Sweaters

—"Did you notice that—Tie-On Sweaters?" Tie-On Sweaters for Girls—new to you—are they not? Well—they're new at Bullock's—and the instant their wrappings were taken from about them—everybody fell captive to their charms—just as you should when you see them on Bullock's Fifth Floor.

—These are perfectly delightful for Easter wear; they're in both plain and fancy weaves—of both imported and domestic wools; offered in many attractive effects—among them the surplice, the semi-Tuxedo, etc.; the color harmonies are lovely; the sizes are for Girls of 10 to 16 years—and the prices range from $5.95 to $10.75.

—Spring and Summer demand Sweaters; now is a good time to provide them—on Bullock's Fifth Floor.

1200 Pairs Children's Fancy Socks at 35c Pair

—Every pair radically repriced!

—Assorted styles in fine with embroidered clocks—silk plated in solid colors—pure thread silk—some with silk crocheted ribbon tops; sizes 4½ to 9½ included; opportunities indeed—Today and Tomorrow morning on Bullock's Fifth Floor.

"ONE O'CLOCK SATURDAYS"

Bullock's Closes Saturday at One o'Clock Every Saturday Throughout the Year

"Fellows!—
Your Easter Suits
are at Bullock's!"

—"I've mine already! Bought it yesterday before they even put it on the hangers. It's new—brand new—in absolutely the latest style! Why listen!—it's Norfolk—with a box pleated back—has pockets that are always right, and lining that looks every-bit as good as the outside! And you ought to see the extra pair of pants! Golf Pants—they are—Gaiter style—knee bands!"

—And on that Boy went telling all about the looks of his Suit because it's the looks of the Suit that impresses the Boy. As tickled as he was he didn't know half how lucky he was. He didn't know—but his Mother did—that the Suit was made of the best of Wool Materials with seams doubly sewn to insure strength! He didn't know—but his Mother did—that six months from then he'd be wearing that same Suit—and still be proud of it.

He Didn't Even Know what a time his Mother had had deciding between Suits at $16.75—$18.50 and $22.50. He did know that every one of 'em had the Style—and his Mother knew that "every one of 'em" had the Quality and Value! It just happened that he's wearing an $18.50 Suit—but it might just as well have been either of the other two—for the Satisfaction would have been just as complete! —"Style, Quality and Value!" Those are the watchwords of Bullock's Boys' Store!

45 Juvenile Suits, $4.95

For Boys of 2½ to 9 Years.

—"Four Ninety-Five!" It isn't possible—and yet that's their price—for Today's selling in Bullock's Boys' Store! Because of broken sizes and styles—Suits that sold in regular stock at an away—way—way higher marking than $4.95 have been reduced for quick disposal. And a quick disposal it certainly should be—for there are only 45 Suits in all—and they're Juvenile Norfolk and Middy Suits in Blue Serge, Tweeds and Fancies—mixtures—in splendidly tailored models for boys of 2½ to 9 years! Today—remember—on Bullock's Fifth Floor.

This Is History

—Just a short span of 14 years to March 4, 1907. That was the starting point of Bullock's.

—If you can recall the opening of Bullock's to Los Angeles and the Southwest, no words here can serve to give you more graphic vision of the progress which has been Bullock's since that time.

—If you cannot recall that time, let us take you back in brief retrospect—not for retrospect alone, but that you may see as Bullock's sees toward the goal of "building a business that will never know completion" toward the development of a service the measure of which will be the satisfaction of every customer.

—March 4, 1907—facing a vista wide and beckoning with opportunity—equipped with determination and an ideal.

—March 4, 1908—richer by a year of Experience and a circle of friends—confident of the year to come because of a year of progress in the face of "scrip times."

—March 4, 1912—an interesting place to pause—the sound of construction operations still resounding to the north of Bullock's where a six-story building had been torn down to make room for a new 10 story, basement and sub-basement Class A building to increase Bullock's Broadway frontage by 210 feet, and space by almost 75%—a promise which was the keynote of Inauguration Month, 1912—

—March 4, 1917, opened the door to another year of accomplishment—business had multiplied beyond the point where Service could be maintained at the Bullock Standard without increased space, so the eight-story building of the Pease Bros. Furniture Co., facing on Hill Street, was enlisted and space was increased 33 1-3%—10 acres in all—

—March 4, 1919, found 10 acres inadequate—and property west of Bullock's on Seventh Street and on Hill Street next to Bullock's Hill Street Building was embraced by Bullock's—opening Bullock's New Store of Motor, Travel and Golf and Bullock's Sportswear Store.

—March 4, 1921, is here—it ushers in the Fifteenth year of Bullock's—and Inauguration Month—which will devote itself to an interpretation—

—Purpose has intensified from years of doing business under the inspiration of the encouragement from the approval which the people of Los Angeles and the Southwest have placed upon this business through its fourteen years of Service—

—Bullock's Fifteenth Inauguration Month will commence Friday March 4—a month of welcome—of Friendship—of Service—with New Merchandise—New Values—and of rededication to an ideal.

THE USUAL DISTRIBUTION OF VIOLETS

"IT'S JUST GREAT TO FEEL SO FINE"

Never Ate Better, Slept Better or Worked Better.

Tanlac Beats Them All, Says Los Angeles Man.

Gained 17 Pounds and is Like a Brand New Man.

"This Tanlac certainly does the work, as I not only feel fine now but I've gained seventeen pounds since I began taking it," said Joseph A. Ochoa, 1309 Mono St., Los Angeles, machinist for the Los Angeles Manufacturing Co.

"It certainly is great to feel like I do now, especially after what I went through with for nearly a year. The fact is, I was almost down and out when I had the good luck to run across Tanlac. I was eating hardly enough to keep a bird alive and was losing weight every day. At night I slept so poorly I believe I couldn't have felt much worse in the morning. If I had been drawn through a threshing machine. A working man can't last long without his rest, and I began to think I would have to throw up the sponge and quit. To make things worse, I began to have an awful pain in my shoulder.

"Tanlac suited my case exactly and as good as made a new man out of me. I never ate better, slept better or worked better in my life than I do now. There's no mistake about it, Tanlac beats them all."

Tanlac is sold in Los Angeles, Pasadena and San Diego by the Owl Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

GET CONTRACT FOR BIG NAVAL HANGARS.

SAN DIEGO FIRM AWARDED SECOND CONTRACT WITH GOVERNMENT.

SAN DIEGO, March 3.—Contractors Lange and Bergstrom of this city have received the contract to build a new seaplane hangar at the North Island Naval Air Station.

Word of the award was received from Washington by the naval public works office of this city. The bid of Lange and Bergstrom for the hangar was $148,338. This also includes the run-way pavement into the bay necessary for the hangar.

The hangar will be of structural steel, covered with asbestos-covered metal and will be 150 by 180 feet, around area. The hangar is for NC planes.

The same firm was the low bidder on the naval training station, also to be built here, of structural steel, covered with asbestos-covered metal and will be 150 by 180 feet, around area. The hangar is for NC planes.

The bid of the naval training station construction on the Loma Port al bay shore, as explained by Contractor Lange today, contained eleven alternatives under the call, and the basic proposition was $904,462 for thirteen buildings. For the seventeen buildings, which are planned for total initial construction, the bill amounts to more than $1,114,800. Whether the contract will be awarded for thirteen or seventeen buildings or some other proposition has not been announced.

Fishing with Hydroplanes for UBIDOUX SARDINES

They gather in great schools off the coast of California. Such great schools can easily be seen by a man in a plane flying over the water. Then a sardine fleet, and the fishermen pulling in nets filled with these delicate fish.

There are many other interesting facts about the sardine industry in California, but the one of interest to you most, is how to get them on the table. The best sardines packed in cans (or anywhere else, for that matter) are the pure imported olive oil under the UBIDOUX Brand. They are prepared so carefully and the best of the newest methods are used—the use of the hydroplane proves that. Let your dealer show you this particular brand.

MAKE TWO HOLES IN SINGLE SHOT.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) PINEHURST (N. C.) March 3.—Within ten minutes of each other, on the same course, and for the first time in the history of Pinehurst, two holes in one shot were recorded here today.

The first ace was negotiated at the fifteenth hole of the championship course by E. H. Wishell of the Montclair Golf Club. The distance is 212 yards. The second one was made a few minutes later by John D. Haffen of Sivanoy, nephew of the former borough president of the Bronx.

Haffen sank his mashie pitch for the ninth hole, 140 yards, in a match with Sam A. Serfarm, a theatrical man.

Probably the prize encounter of the afternoon should be in the distance event when Dwight Holcomb and Ray Thomas tangle. Holcomb was a star last year and ran a horrid last lap for the Pioneers in the A.A.U. relay carnival. He is supposedly good for about 3:04 in the half. Thomas hasn't made such awfully fast time so far, but he has always finished in front, which, after all, is the main thing. The Toller has won all his races with a terrific sprint.

Sweden Anderson in the weights. White in the pole vault. Young and Salsbery in the quarter. Olsen and Thompson in the sprints and Hayes and Tinsley in the jumps are counted on to place for the Blue Devils in the sprints and pole. Laver in the hurdles and Lane in the distances are being counted on for the majority of the Toller digits.

This afternoon at Lincoln High School the Rallies will entertain the unsuspecting youths from San Diego in a track meet. We can't say "unsuspecting" because nobody would ever tackle Lincoln if they knew what Tommy Davis's aggression was. Tom Davis, former captain of the University of Maine football team, and Ernest Abbott, a former Colby College athlete, were forced to quit last night from exhaustion. The referee declared it a draw.

CINDER HOPES ON KEEN EDGE.

Sid Foster's Track Men Meet L. A. High Today.

Looks Like San Diego is in for Something Awful.

Lincoln Demons All Set for Southern Invasion.

A wild young track meet is due to startle the neighbors in the vicinity of Los Angeles High School today when the Pioneers tangle with Sid Foster's talented cinder scatters on Hough Field. While Manual Arts finished a punk second to Lincoln in their dual meet, the Toller are plenty strong enough to lick anybody else in the city, according to the present dops and are expected to lay waste the Blue and White hopes today.

FIRST GAME OF SEASON TODAY.

Chicago Cubs to Cross Bats with Avalon Nine

William Wrigley, Jr., to Toss the Opening Ball.

Manager Evers to Try Out Nineteen Players.

AVAILON (Catalina Island) March 3.—Inauguration day may set the nation afire, but to Catalina tomorrow means just one thing, "play ball!"

"We play the Chicago Cubs tomorrow" is on every tongue. Mayor Pete Dwyer has declared a holiday. The school will close for the half day that both teachers and students may witness the great game and all company employees have been given the day off.

TOSS THE BALL.
 Promptly at 10 o'clock William Wrigley, Jr., owner of the Chicago Cubs, will toss the ball to Killefer and the game will be on—and there is not going to be a man, woman or child in Avalon who is going to miss that game. Harry Duffin, manager of the local All-Star team, says the boys are in great shape and will give the Cubs a good stiff game. He gives his line-up:

General D'Arcy has been watching Alexander's form and expects to throw a few twisters himself.

GIVE ALL TRY.
 Manager John Evers would not give out a line-up. He plans to put all nineteen men into the game, and as they are all pitchers, he intends to give every man a try.

There was great kidding on the Catalina field this morning on California weather, with Speed Martin as the chief detractor of our fair climate.

"We are just springing a few clouds in with the sunshine to make you feel more at home," he called to the Chicago boys.

OUT ON FIELD.
 Mr. Wrigley was out on the field for the first time to see the boys work out and stayed throughout the morning. He seemed as full of spirit and vigor as any of the youngsters. His spontaneous laugh and appreciative encouragement seemed to put the boys on their mettle and the morning's work was the swiftest.

UNITE TO FIGHT CENSOR.

Associated Secretaries Vote to Take Move to Many Organizations.

Scores of important civic and industrial organizations in Los Angeles will be urged to pass resolutions opposing proposed State and national legislation designed to impose official censors on the cinema as a result of a resolution adopted yesterday at a luncheon of the Associated Secretaries of Los Angeles, held at noon at the City Club at Eighth street and Broadway.

The Associated Secretaries went on record as opposing the censorship move, and the membership of the association, which is made up of secretaries of many other organizations, agreed to carry individual messages urging this action to their respective clubs, associations and societies. The stand against censorship of the cinema was taken after those present at the luncheon had listened to addresses by Glenn Harper, local representative of the Motion Picture Theater Owners' Association, and by Benjamin B. Hampton, the local producer.

WOULD HAVE TO SUIT. "The motion picture art and industry is of such magnitude that the majority of people are unable to comprehend the destructive effect that would be produced by such a thing as censorship of films," said Mr. Harper. "The restrictions imposed upon producers and exhibitors under consideration are so strict that if they were enacted into law motion pictures would go out of existence."

"The rulings of the six or eight Jack Edwards, Bert Farmer, A. T. Frankenstein, Harry Fink, E. R. Gregory, Leon Goldwater, James G. M. A. Hamberger, Percy V. Hampton, Irving Hellman, Elliott House, Julius Hauser, Clarence D. Huddeson, W. P. Jeffries, Louis Josephs, Charles F. BERGSTROM APPROVED.

Council Committee Approves Mayor's Art Commission Selection.

Mayor Snyder's appointment of Edwin Bergstrom as a member of the Municipal Art Commission was approved yesterday afternoon by the Public Welfare Committee of the City Council, which will recommend to the Council that the appointment be confirmed. TO BURN MORTGAGE.

Elks Plan Jubilee Program, but Keep Details a Secret.

With elaborate ceremony and a unique program, details of which these in charge will not divulge, the mortgage on the lot at Eighth and Figueroa streets, purchased some time ago by the local Elks Lodge, No. 99, will be burned Wednesday night. The rites will begin at 11 p.m., the "magic hour" in Elksdom.

Norman A. Ballie, the newly elected Exalted Ruler, will preside at the "mortgage burning celebration" and the building committee, of which Leo V. Youngworth is chairman, will have charge of the rites.

MEDICOS MEET AND TALK.

Los Angeles County Medical Association members held their first meeting at their new headquarters, the Union League Club Building auditorium, last night. Two hundred attended. Dr. Walter V. Brom, president of the association; Dr. Harlan Shoemaker, secretary, and several others, spoke. Motion pictures on scientific subjects were displayed. The association will meet after this at the Union League Auditorium twice each month.

POLICE POWER AMPLIFIED.

Mr. Hampton pointed out that the police power can be used and used, effectively, to stop the exhibition of malicious pictures, and that the police power carries with it the right to trial by jury.

"If democracy means anything," said Mr. Hampton, "it means an enlightened, intelligent public opinion that moves definitely and promptly to secure the best results for the community at large. Censorship means exactly the opposite. Censorship sets up a small body of individuals to pass upon the thoughts and the actions of all the people in the community."

"If public opinion is at fault, if public taste is bad, it is the duty and responsibility of the leaders of the community to educate public taste and public judgment along right lines. We need not need legislation; we need education."

"More legislation will merely encourage the book, create more expensive commissions for the taxpayers to support and, worst of all, in this particular art and industry, censorship and blue Sunday laws will kill an art that is needed at this time by all the people."

Comedian Sues Christie; Wants Balm for Kick.

Sylvian De Jardine, known as Bobby Vernon, the cinema comedian, filed suit yesterday for $50,000 against C. H. Christie, Harry Edwards and the Christie Film Company, declaring that his spine was badly injured by a kick which Mr. Christie administered to him when his back was turned on the producer.

He charges that then he was beaten by Mr. Christie and Mr. Edwards. It is set forth in the complaint that Bobby Vernon is only five feet and three inches in height and that Mr. Christie is a large man.

Another version of the affair is given by Nat Dawling, Mr. Christie's representative, who said last evening that Mr. Vernon was told by Mr. Christie to go to work and refused. A dispute ensued, Mr. Dawling says, and Mr. Christie first objected to some of Mr. Vernon's language because there were women present, and when the comedian did not desist, took him by the nape of the neck and ran him out of the office. The kick and beating are denied.

FRIDAY MORNING.

JUVENILE HALL CLASH AT CLUB.

Speaker is Contradicted by Superintendent.

Letter Says Babies Are Not Neglected at Night.

Need More Room, Not Fewer Arrests of Children.

Because of the approaching investigation at the California School for Girls at Ventura and the unsettled conditions there since the riots, at the burning of the buildings and the escape of nine of the girls early in the week, Mrs. Mary A. Hill, superintendent of the school, who was scheduled to speak before the juvenile section of the Ebell club yesterday morning, sent word at the last moment to Mrs. Charles Hill, president of the club, that she could not attend. Mrs. Kemper B. Campbell took her place on the program, and some of the perturbation of the club seemed to be transferred to the Ebell auditorium, for Mrs. Campbell's talk on juvenile legislation and the condition at Juvenile Hall aroused considerable opposition.

"It isn't the personnel either of Juvenile Court or Juvenile Hall that is wrong," said Mrs. Campbell. "It is the system. As long as arrests of children can be made so readily there will be trouble. For instance, in my own neighborhood recently a boy broke into a school playground to play ball after school and was arrested. He deserved punishment, to be sure, but the stigma in having his name on the court records is too much for him. Besides, arrests for such small causes make for crowded conditions in corrective institutions."

Mrs. Janice Denmore, superintendent of Juvenile Hall, who was in the audience, arose upon the conclusion of Mrs. Campbell's talk and the need is for a new building, for fewer arrests, necessarily, she also said that the accusations of Mrs. Campbell had made that the nursery is locked with the little children crying all night in their beds with no one to watch them is not true.

Mrs. Hill presided at the luncheon following the morning session and introduced Mrs. Matthew S. Stetson, who was greeted with enthusiasm upon this, her first, appearance since her long illness. Other speakers were Miss Ruth Hammett, actress; Jane Mead, Welch, and Edward S. Curtis, who gave a talk on Indian religion and the collection of records of Indians. It was announced that the residence of the club passed some weeks in preparing the redwood forests of California had been read before the State Assembly at the last session by Edwin Baker of the Berkeley District, and further that they had been incorporated in the Daily Journal of February 23.

W.C.T.U. elected yesterday to serve the coming year for the Los Angeles W.C.T.U. were: President, Hattie Doughty, who was re-elected; vice-president, Dr. M. Len corresponding secretary, Mrs. Abba Burch; recording secretary, Mrs. Margaret E. Norrington; and recording secretary, Mrs. Johnson; treasurer, Mrs. F. Turner, and assistant treasurer, A. Baker.

Mrs. Warner has served for twenty consecutive years as treasurer of this organization and yesterday she was made guest of honor at the luncheon that was served in the First Christian Church dining room, where the all-day meeting was held.

Legislative Council. The Women's Legislative Council of California will hold its regular conference in the Chamber of Commerce Building, parlor tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Walker Wilberbrandt will preside.

The executive board meeting and annual meeting will be held in the hall on the 31st inst.

OIL FIELD OPENED BY GAS BLAST. A wild new oil field was believed to have been discovered in the San Joaquin Valley where, on Monday night, a wildcat well was totally destroyed by a powerful blast of natural gas.

The well was being drilled by the American Petroleum Company at the Willow, twenty-five miles west of Bakersfield. At a depth of 1,000 feet gas was struck. The derrick was wrecked and the hole completely closed up. A geyser of mud was hurled over the vicinity and all yesterday hundreds of ranchmen drove to Los Angeles to witness it. This well is the only one in that county and many had regarded it as only a wildcat venture with possibilities of striking oil. As the tools were lost in the hole the well was closed up, a second well will be started immediately.

News of the gas strike brought to Los Angeles Percy Clark, a local real estate dealer, who visited the wrecked well yesterday.

GREAT LINER IN FROM ATLANTIC.

Hawkeye State is to Dock in Inner Harbor Today.

Largest Craft of Kind Ever Here; Welcome Waits.

Sister Ship Due to Arrive Before Noon Tomorrow.

The 31,000-ton liner, Hawkeye State, the biggest ship of its kind ever seen at this port, is to enter the harbor at sunrise this morning. She arrived off quarantine last night, and will dock at Shed 3, near W. Washington, at 8 a. m. today and will be boarded by hundreds of visitors.

The vessel is the first of the United States Shipping Board's "225" to reach the Pacific, and arrived one day ahead of her sister ship, the Golden State. The Matson Navigation Company, operator of the Hawkeye State, has extended 2500 invitations to members of the Chamber of Commerce and others to inspect the ship on Friday, and to welcome her at 4 p. m. today, and the party will disembark here and spend three days in Southern California, making headquarters at the Hotel Green, Pasadena. The Hawkeye State will proceed to San Francisco at 4 p. m. today, and the party will join the vessel before she sails from the northern port.

The Hawkeye State will be placed on a regular run between Honolulu and Baltimore with several other ships of her type, which are now being completed in Atlantic Coast shipyards. Los Angeles Harbor, San Francisco and Havana will be regular ports of call.

A feature of the program at the harbor today will be the distribution of choice California oranges to the passengers on the Hawkeye State by a Chamber of Commerce committee headed by John P. Burke. The Golden State, operated by the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, is due to arrive here at 11 a. m. tomorrow and to dock at 12. Native Sons of the Golden West will present a flag to the ship, which was named for this State, and from 1:30 till 3 p. m. "open house" will be kept on board. The Mayor, Council and members of the Chamber of Commerce will be present at 4 a. m. Sunday the vessel will sail for the North.

WANTS FOR PROTESTS.

Mayor Withholds Signature on Cuts on San Fernando Water Rates.

The citrus growers of the San Fernando Valley will have an opportunity to appear before the City Council next Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock to protest, if they desire, against the proposal of reducing by one-half the rates to be charged for water for irrigation purposes until April 30. The ordinance temporarily reducing the rate applies only to citrus groves in the San Fernando Valley of four years old or less, and it is against this provision that owners of older groves in the valley are protesting. Mayor Snyder announced yesterday that he will withhold his signature to the ordinance until after the meeting on Monday.

MAY GET JOBS BACK.

Two Ex-Police Sergeants Win Point on City Attorney's Ruling.

The Board of Police Commissioners will probably reinstate former Detective Sergeants Jim L. Kirby and Bert Cowan as the result of the opinion of the City Attorney to the effect that it would be useless to appeal from Judge Shenk's decision ordering the men reinstated to their jobs. The City Council yesterday, on the advice of the City Attorney's office, declined to instruct the City Attorney to appeal from Judge Shenk's decision, as had been suggested by the Board of Police Commissioners.

OIL PERMITS REVOKED.

Fire Commission Says Two Dealers Misrepresented Product.

The Board of Fire Commissioners yesterday revoked the permits to sell gasoline and oil held by L. Allen Wood of 1075 West Seventh street and George W. Wood of 1102 South Hill street. The men were charged with "improper conduct of business in selling oil not as represented."

FIREMEN AID SERVICE MEN.

Vote Part of Salary for Two Months to Relief Work for Soldiers.

Members of the Fire Department have voluntarily agreed, Chief Scott announced yesterday, to donate 1 per cent of their salaries for a period of two months to the unemployment relief work of the local posts of the American Legion. The contribution of the firemen will amount to $1200 a month.

The City Council yesterday appropriated $10,000 to be spent in clearing the banks of the Los Angeles River, and at Griffith Park, the men to be hired for the work being supplied by the Soldiers and Sailors' Replacement Bureau.

BRICKS WIN MONEY FOR DISABLED.

Report Good Response by Public to Appeal to Aid Afflicted Fighters.

Have you bought your brick yet? In the downtown business section yesterday many miniature bricks were sold in behalf of the Disabled Veterans Home Fund. The three-week campaign to raise $100,000, which opened Tuesday, is well launched and an earnest effort is being made by the campaigners to sell out their entire supply of these tiny bricks during the initial week. The second week is scheduled to be one of direct contact appeal, while in the third week it is expected to reach the goal by the medium of entertainments and special program features.

The miniature bricks, which afford their purchasers novel souvenirs of the campaign, as well as serving for paperweights, are being sold at $1.25 and $1.50, while bronze, silver-plated and gold-plated bricks are priced at $2.50, $3.00 and $5.00. Under the direction of Marshall Stinson, the four-minute men who served during the war, have rallied to the cause and are being booked for special speaking engagements. Near-by cities are also taking active part. At San Ana arrangements are being made through the American Legion for a big meeting to be held the week of March 12. Similar gatherings are being planned for Covina, Alhambra, Downey and Culver City. It is announced that it is the purpose of the trustees to use this fund for temporary relief only. The government has comprehensive plans ahead, but for the present there are 4300 disabled veterans of the World War in and about Los Angeles in whose behalf the humanitarian project is being launched.

FIGHT BLUE SKY LAW AS UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

TOY COMPANY, REGISTERED IN ARIZONA, SUED FOR SALE WITHOUT PERMIT.

The prosecution of Emil Spitzer, president, and Fred W. Young, secretary, of the Pacific Toy Company, for a purported violation of the blue sky law, started before a jury in Judge Houston's court yesterday. It is charged that the defendants attempted to sell in California the stock of an Arizona corporation without first having obtained a permit from the Corporation Commission. Dep. Dist. Atty. Clark is prosecuting.

The defendants, represented by Attorneys Shippee and Marmaduke, contend that the stock of the company is fully paid up and privately owned in this State, and further that the Corporate Security Act is unconstitutional and void. The defendants assert that the commission is trying to make a test case of this to show that no foreign corporation can come into California and sell stock without a permit. The penalty upon conviction is imprisonment for from one day to five years, and a fine of $1 to $5000.

HOLDUP BY BURGLAR.

Woman Threatened with Revolver While He Ranacks House.

Entering the home of Mrs. E. B. Street at 447 South Grand avenue yesterday afternoon, a burglar held the woman up at the point of a revolver and ransacked the entire place. He escaped through a window with jewelry and clothing valued at about $230. According to Mrs. Street, she heard some one moving about in the front of her house and discovered the intruder searching the rooms. As soon as he saw her the burglar drew a revolver and threatened to kill her if she should call for help.

WHY "ANURIC"

Before an Insurance Company will take a risk on your life the examining physician will test the urine and report whether you are a good risk. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headache, dizzy spells, or the twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism and gout. The urine is often cloudy, full of sediment; channels often get sore and sleep is disturbed two or three times a night. This is the time you should consult some physician of wide experience—such as Dr. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Send him 10c for large trial package of his new discovery—"An-uric" (anti uric acid). Write him your symptoms and send a sample of urine for test. —Advertisement.

Aglow with the new

—When you come looking this morning you'll find any number of new things just out of their boxes—such delightfully different things. You will need no words from any one to know they are but a few days away from Fashionland.

—The Taffeta Frocks perhaps hold greatest interest for women—they're so typical of Youth and Springtime—and so very modestly priced.

—Then there are beauties of the new Canton Crepe, and of the soft clinging Silks, too.

—The Suits are going to be a delightful surprise, for the designers and makers have departed from all the time-honored ideas and these new Spring Suits are—oh!—but come see them yourself—just words can't tell you nearly enough about them.

A remarkable purchase and sale
Girls' Gingham Dresses
at two very low prices!

$1.29 and $1.98

—Those at $1.29 are nearly all for girls of 2
to 6 years—Those at $1.98 include all sizes from 2 to 12 years and a few 14 years.

—Mothers who know the most about the cost of good gingham and who know the time and the pains it takes to make children's dresses, will tell you that it would be foolish economy for you to attempt to make dresses when such dresses as these can be bought for as little as this.

—The majority of these dresses came to us in a very exceptional purchase—others were taken out of regular stocks and very sharply reduced—some of them very close to half.

—There are more than a dozen different styles—some quite plain, with big white pearl buttons for trimmings—some in very attractive dark plaids with white pique collars set off with a touch of colored embroidery—others are of plain colored materials with plaid pockets, belts and collars and a touch of hand smocking. Nearly all of them have pockets for hankies, for jacks and balls and all the other things that every little girl must have a place for.

—But it's going to be the way these dresses are made and the way they'll wear and launder that will win women's hearts.

MUST FIND NEW WAYS TO TEACH.

Better Teachers Also Needed,
Says Susan M. Dorsey.

City School Head is Speaker
at Atlantic City

Pleads for Higher Ideals in Ranks of Profession.

Better teachers and new ways of teaching are among the imperative needs of the public school system of the United States, said Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey, superintendent of the schools of this city, in an address she made Wednesday at Atlantic City, N. J., before an audience of 7000 people at the annual convention of the National Education Association.

Mrs. Dorsey's address was one of the features of the closing days of the convention, which had been in session since February 24, and she was one of the principal speakers selected from the association's department of superintendence. She said, in part:

As one means of improving instruction, we urge a more intelligent grouping of children according to their intellectual capabilities, so that instruction may be adapted to their varying degrees of intelligence.

By referring to age-grade tables, it is found that 33.3 per cent of the children in the public schools are one year or more behind grade.
When we eliminate the 2 or 3 per cent that are actually feeble-minded, there still remain the 36 per cent
who could very well be given attention according to their needs.

The instruction for these over-age children must be such as to insure on the part of the children sustained effort, self-help, and self-measurement. Nothing improves teaching more than the stimulus of seeing constant, measurable progress in children who have been regarded as hopeless, and the consciousness on the part of the child of steady progress gives the wings of hope to his efforts.

To secure better teaching, it is suggested that vocational guidance be applied to the vocation of teaching, so that those of good intelligence and good character may be directed into the profession. Teachers must believe in the profession themselves, must stop their dolorous talk about the hardships, its penury, its limitations, and must see with the clear vision of those who love the work and believe in its resembling destinies, the road that leads to supreme service, highest satisfaction, and most helpful accomplishment. They must themselves invite the best of those whom they teach to enter a vocation second to none in opportunity and which offers lives of contentment, of service and achievement.

Better teaching can be secured by a better understanding on the part of departments of education of the instructional needs of the public schools. It must be understood that university methods, attitudes and even standards cannot be carried into the teaching of boys and girls, and that more emphasis must be placed upon the development of children than upon the development of subject matter.

The teacher training given must be such as takes cognizance of the way men actually live, and which has a pre-vision of a better way—not less of vision of science or literature or art, but more of a human understanding of the heart of the young, beset with hard home conditions or imperiled by indulgent parents or enthralled by social temptations, or galled by poverty, or humiliated by the consciousness of inferiority.

To have better teaching in the public schools there must be a better understanding of the aim of all teaching. The young must be made to realize that public education implies a social partnership, precludes
the selfish individualism of the exclusive, and imposes inescapable social and civic obligations upon the recipients thereof.

Herein lies the most important essential of training of teachers for public school service. There is little use for undefined, aimless teaching of ideals of democracy, social service and patriotism. There is great need that these ideals be crystallized into a body of teaching material which shall clearly define the underlying principles of the American people.

The place which the public school holds in the general scheme of this experiment, how far the public school up to this time has realized its duty and possibility in the general scheme, and what is the next step in order to achieve a fuller realization of the particular service to be rendered by this American institution, are matters of first importance in teacher training.

A new type of teaching and teacher must be produced—the teacher trained first of all to regard his work as an individual, unrelated task, not as a group task in a single school, but as a part of a great national program designed to interpret for the whole people through compulsive instruction given in the public schools the significance, the accomplishments, the possibilities, the necessities of our particular nationalism; and to create in the young such dispositions and attitudes as will make them fit to live in a land such as ours and apt for its service.

THRILLS BEHIND FURAY CHARGES.

Much Gunplay and Locomotive Chase Highlights.

San Francisco to Mrs. Furay, Mr. McLaren learned of his whereabouts. He immediately notified Mr. Norfleet, then in San Diego. Mr. Norfleet went to Fort Worth, where he had been sworn in as an officer, obtained extradition papers and hurried to Jacksonville.

In a hotel cafe in Jacksonville, Mr. Norfleet and his son came upon Furay.

"I drew my pistol," Mr. Norfleet relates, "and said that I had a warrant for his arrest. Furay jumped up screaming, 'Bandit! Robber!' People jumped from tables and crowded around."

An attempt on the part of four associates of Furay to effect his rescue followed. In the fight that followed, one of Mr. Norfleet's fingers was bitten off, supposedly by Furay. The farmer-detective managed to take Furay to the police station at Jacksonville. From there they went to Palmetto Grove, near Jacksonville, and Furay offered to return $10,000 to Mr. Norfleet, the latter says, if Pete should be sent to a certain man in Jacksonville to get the money. Mr. Norfleet drew his pistol and said that his son would go. If he failed to return by sundown, Furay would be killed. Scarcely had Pete Norfleet left than four associates of Furay's, armed with revolvers, broke into the place and tried a rescue. Mr. Norfleet relates. He says he placed his pistol against Furay's stomach and said if the men advanced, he would shoot.

LOCOMOTIVE CHASE.

Pete did not get the money and father and son took Furay to Jacksonville.

On a train approaching Fort Worth, Furay made another attempt to escape, jumping from a car window while the train was going thirty miles an hour. Mr. Norfleet followed. Furay, it was said, obtained the use of a switch engine, paying the crew $1000 to aid him. In the engine he fled, but Mr. Norfleet, in true motion-picture style, obtained another engine, telegraphed ahead and headed off Furay, rearresting him.

In triumph he returned to Fort Worth with his prisoner.

In his search for Furay he had traveled from Hale Center, Tex., to Los Angeles and San Francisco, spending much time in California, and then to Florida.

Records at Central Police Station here show that Furay, alias Martin, alias George Reynolds, alias Fergusson, has been arrested in California four or five times and is wanted at Chicago, Joliet, Baltimore, Buffalo, Milwaukee, Washington, D. C., Memphis and elsewhere for bunko games involving amounts ranging from $40,000 to $5000.

Advices from Fort Worth last night said that Furay, in his cell in the Tarrant County Jail, expressed the opinion that his confession had caused the arrest of the Los Angeles officers.

He is to appear in court next Thursday. He says he will plead guilty to the Norfleet charge.

Mrs. Dede Furay, it was stated by Malcolm McLaren, has lived apart from her husband since four months before the birth of her son, now aged 11 years. She is well known

FOREIGN TRADE AN APPROVED

er Directors Indorse Financing Scheme.

ic Corporation Will Give Long Credits.

Place Other Countries in Position to Buy.

Foreign Trade Financing Corporation provided under the Edge amendment to the Reserve Act, was invested by the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce. The bill provides for development of trade abroad invested capital of $100,- and the foreign trade department of the chamber asked for the national act which pointed out that with foreign countries by can be greatly expanded trade both of American and of consumers

The committee on finance of the foreign trade department making careful study of the bill recommended the bill.

The bill allows national banks to invest not more than 10 percent of their capital in the vanderbilt by corporations or in the lines indicated and the state banks may support the scheme. American citizen corporations owned by the people of Americans are permitted to invest likewise.

NO CREDIT MACHINE.
The bill provides for this tremendous unfunded source from the lack of a machine to extend long or short-term credits abroad, to countries which need the products of American farms and factories.

Producers of goods and services find that a large proportion of their crops and manufactures are unsold, due to the fact that foreign buyers, formerly invited by the war, cannot acquire materials except on long-term credit. Foreign and domestic banks have been hampered because of the money placed on national commercial bodies, and the tendency of the part of Europe is to refuse to trade.

The Foreign Trade Corporation
is established by thirty of the most prominent bankers and businessmen in the country, appointed by the national council of representatives of agriculture, commerce and business which was held in December last. The corporation will handle the various interests of every section of the country.

The Foreign Trade Corporation
is organized by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, the United States Trade Council, the National Manufacturers' Association,
the National Association of Manufacturers, the American Farm Bureau Federation, the National Conference, and other agencies may be organized.

Foreign trade from abroad will be increased by this plan, it is estimated by leading commercial men, by extending credits, thereby that normal consumption
in foreign countries will absorb American goods
and idle.
